The pages were turned one by one. You saw familiar faces of friends of the past. Some of these people have gone their separate ways, some you still see today.

We were all thrown together some in the first grade, in the seventh, and in the ninth. But along the way many of these faces wondered in and out through the years.

We had our own groups, but in times of trouble and need we came together. As each year came to an end we slowly became a class. The Class of 1991 as we were referred to is one that began a new tradition that all the other classes would want to live up to, but none of them could have surpassed.

REMEMBER WHEN?

To "Joe Bean" O'Hanlon
To the most wonderful Person
I ever knew,
I am so glad I met you and for the times we spent together, Although it was only for a little while.

You made me and others so happy that it will last us a lifetime of joy.

But in our hearts you are not gone you are only gone away for a little While,
and we shall be together once again someday.

Sadly missed by:

Friends

"To Mano Childs"
There is no night
without a dawning,
No winter without a Spring,
And beyond death's dark horizon
Our hearts once more will sing —
For those who leave us for a while have only gone away
Out of a restless,
careworn world
Into a "Brighter Day" Where there will be no partings
And time is not counted
by years,
Where there are no trials
or troubles,
No worries, no cares
and no tears.

Helen Steiner Rice

Manolito Childs 1971-1989

Mano you are very much missed by both family and friends. You brighten the lives of many people by your charming smile and great personality. Though you will not be walking with us this graduation we all know that you will be holding each of our hands. Your memory is carried on in each of our hearts. Your friendship, we will treasure forever. We love you and miss you much.

1st Row Left to Right: Amy Livingston, Christy Anderson, Dana Reynolds, Shannon LeBlanc. 2nd Row: Bonnie Smith, Arlette Ladner, Natasha Ladner, Tina Percle, Gina Reynolds.

Sincerely,
Christy and Amy

Senior Farewell

“SAYING GOODBYE”

The final year is actually here, as SENIORS we shall make an entrance of pure delight, yet an exit of sheer pain, wondering if we will ever see our fellow classmates again. The graduation speech rings in our ears as each of us ponders in thought, shakes with fear, and cries with all of our hearts. As we begin to say our last goodbyes, we grasp the hands of our friends not wanting to let go. We hope to see them again, and we will for awhile, but time and miles will eventually come between us. Knowing that this is it, we all assume our separate paths which marks the beginning of our lives, but we will always have the memories of that final year, never able to recall them without shedding a tear because 1991 was our year.
